HOOFLAND'S. THE BULLETIN. A REMINDER Publication Office, Bulletin Building Washington Avenue. It is said that "Poor Carlotta" has recently, in her insanity, caused her guardians and relatives a great deal of trouble. She insists upon remaining in the open air all the time, and any attempt to take her back to her apartments brings on frightful paroxysms of rage, in which she refuses to take food for several days in succession. The Queen of Belgium passes every day six or seven hours in the company of the unfortunate lady. Carlotta's favorite language is Spanish, and, to gratify her, both the King and Queen have learned to speak that tongue since her return from Mexico. To Debilitated Persons! Dyspeptics! News says that there are not less than ten thousand acres of No. 1 land on the northern bank of Cane creek, between the head waters at the county line and its mouth on the Hatchie river, upon which the primitive forests are still standing. This land is capable of producing fifty bushels corn per acre, two tons of hay, and much of it 1500 seed cotton to the acre.
